Avery Awaits!

Nestled in the heart of North Carolina's High Country, Avery County invites you to experience a place where adventure, creativity, and mountain serenity come together. With sweeping views, welcoming communities, and endless opportunities to explore, this is a destination that feels both inspiring and refreshingly authentic.

From the iconic peaks of Grandfather Mountain to the underground wonders of Linville Caverns, Avery County offers a landscape that draws outdoor lovers, culture seekers, and laid-back explorers alike. Miles of scenic beauty set the stage for discovery, whether you're chasing adrenaline or simply slowing down to take it all in.

Each of our towns bring their own unique personality and charm. Newland, the county seat, serves as a welcoming hub with local shops, dining, and non-profit organizations that reflect the heart of Avery County. Stroll through Banner Elk's lively downtown, where festivals, galleries, and local flavors create an energetic mountain vibe. Discover the quiet elegance of Linville, known for its historic roots and proximity to some of the region's most iconic natural landmarks, or explore Elk Park, a small-town community rich in railroad history and hometown pride. Head to Sugar Mountain and Beech Mountain for year-round fun—from winter skiing and snowboarding to summer escapes filled with cool breezes and panoramic views. In Crossnore, Appalachian heritage comes to life through generations-old traditions.

Avery County is more than a destination—it's an outdoor playground for all ages. Hike scenic trails, bike winding mountain roads, cast a line in clear mountain streams, or tee off on championship golf courses. Regardless of the season, Avery County awaits with boundless opportunity to explore it all.

What truly sets Avery County apart is its strong sense of community. Time and again, neighbors come together with resilience, generosity, and pride—creating a place that feels not only beautiful, but deeply connected.

Throughout the year, Avery County hosts festivals and events that celebrate creativity, tradition, and mountain fun. Highlights include the Mile High Kite Festival on Beech Mountain, where colorful kites dance across the sky at one of the highest elevations in the East, and the beloved Woolly Worm Festival, where thousands of visitors and locals alike gather to race for glory and embrace the magic of Appalachian folklore.

Whether you're cruising the Blue Ridge Parkway, enjoying a meal at a cozy local restaurant, or taking in long-range mountain views from a scenic overlook, Avery County offers moments that linger long after your visit. Adventure, beauty, and genuine mountain hospitality await—come discover it for yourself.

Sincerely,

Communities

BANNER ELK: Banner Elk's tourism motto is "Escape. Unwind. Indulge." Enjoy small town relaxation, amenities of a larger city, richness of culture and adventure. Within 15 minutes of the town's lone stoplight you can experience the great outdoors, fabulous dining, theater and the arts, family attractions and the South's two largest ski resorts: Beech Mountain and Sugar Mountain.

BEECH MOUNTAIN: A popular resort community offering year-round activities including snow skiing, golfing, hiking, biking, fishing and more! At 5,506 feet above sea level, temperatures rarely exceed 72 degrees. Beech is a town in both Avery and Watauga counties.

CROSSNORE: Crossnore, named after its original settler George Crossnore, is home to Crossnore Communities for Children, Ben Long fresco "Suffer the Little Children" in Sloop Chapel, Crossnore Weavers, Crossnore Fine Arts Gallery, Miracle Ground Coffee Shop and Blair Fraley Sales Store.

ELK PARK: Elk Park was one of the most populated areas of Avery County in the 1940s, but was left almost frozen in time when the iron ore mines closed. Residents have embraced this historic past and boast of their antique and hardware stores that take us back in time. Elk Park is named for the number of elk killed in the area around the time of incorporation (1911) and is home to Elk River Falls, a 50 ft. waterfall.

LINVILLE: Linville was originally developed as a summer resort where families could escape the heat and humidity of the south. Continuing that tradition, Linville is now home to a number of country club communities. Adding to Linville's popularity is the famous Grandfather Mountain, Old Hampton Store and a quaint arts district on Ruffin Street.

LINVILLE FALLS: This unincorporated community is named after Linville Falls, a spectacular three-tiered waterfall plunging into the Linville Gorge. Explore the wilderness of Linville Gorge, also known as the Grand Canyon of the Southern Appalachians and as the deepest, most remote gorge east of the Rockies. The fishing isn't bad either.

MINNEAPOLIS: Known locally as “Dogtown,” it is historically tied to the Clinchfield Railroad and known for its gorgeous mountain setting. It sits near the Blue Ridge Parkway, close to Linville Gorge and the Pisgah National Forest. Visitors enjoy winding mountain roads, trout streams, and quick access to hiking trails, waterfalls, and overlooks. Its small-town setting makes it ideal for a quiet base while exploring the mountains, and nearby ski resorts.

NEWLAND: Who would have known, prior to 1911, that “Old Fields of Toe” would have been renamed “Newland” for NC Lieutenant Governor William C. Newland. This municipality has the distinction of being the highest county seat east of the Mississippi. This quaint town is decorated with a classical courthouse that overlooks a traditional town square bordered by churches and complete with a memorial to Avery County veterans.

PINEOLA: Until the 1900s, Pineola was known as “Saginaw.” It was the site of a large logging operation and sawmill. Pineola is the home of several businesses, tree farms, campgrounds, a small hotel and a resort community called Linville Land Harbor. The Linville River flows through the area and feeds the Linville Land Harbor Lake. The Blue Ridge Parkway passes through the southwest portion of Pineola.

Communities

PLUMTREE: Plumtree, in southwestern Avery County is a breathtaking synthesis of history and beauty. The Toe River rushes vigorously through the center of the tiny community offering superb trout fishing and relaxation opportunities. Plumtree is home to Fraser Fir Christmas trees, camping, and the former Tar Heel Mica Company.

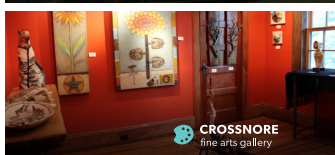

SEVEN DEVILS: Seven Devils, a resort established in the 1960s, was incorporated in 1979. The town is sheltered by mile-high Hanging Rock Mountain and Dunveagan Peak and is home to Hawknest's Tubing and Zipline.

SUGAR MOUNTAIN: Sugar Mountain features a winter ski destination, an 18-hole golf course, Har-Tru clay tennis courts, summer mountain bike park, scenic lift rides, white water rafting outfitters, alpine coaster, adventure ropes course, shopping, and restaurants. Sugar Mountain is a great base camp for Blue Ridge Mountain trips every season of the year.

THANK YOU TO JIM MAGRUDER

On behalf of the Chamber team, thank you for your many years of dedication to showcasing the natural beauty, character, and spirit of Avery County through your photography. Your work has captured more than images—it has preserved moments, landscapes, and stories that reflect the heart of our mountains and the people who call them home. Through your lens, countless residents and visitors alike have been able to appreciate Avery County's unique beauty in meaningful and lasting ways. Your contributions have helped promote pride in our community and have left a lasting visual legacy that will be enjoyed for generations to come. Thank you for all you have given to Avery County. Your work truly makes a difference.
